ab inferno, liberum autem celeste sit a Domino. Talem spiritum, quod nemo a Libero informali in Liberum celestem venire possit nisi per reformationem a Domino, et quod nemo in Liberum hoc, nempe celestem, introduci possit, nisi per affectionem boni et veri, hoc est, non nisi quam per bonum vitam cui implanctur verum doctrina.

1875. Bonum vitam seu affectio boni insinuat a Domino per viam internam, homine proprius, nesciente. Verum doctrina autem, seu fides, per viam externam, et inferius memoria, inde a Domino suo tempore et suo ordine evocatur, et affectioni boni coniungitur. hoc fit in Libero homini, nam Liberum hominem est, ut dictum, ex affectione; talis est insinatio et radicatio fidei; quicquid fit in Libero, hoc coniungitur, quod autem fit in coacto, non coniungitur; quod constare potest ex eo, quod nequaquam aliquid coniungi possit, nisi quo affectus, affectio est ipsam recipiens, contra affectionem aliquid recipere, est contra vitam; inde patet, quod verum doctrina seu fides non recipi queat, nisi ab affectione eius; sed qualis affectio, talis receptio; affectio boni est solum, quod recipit verum fidei, concordant enim, et quia concordant, se coniungunt.

1876. Quia nemo reformari potest nisi in libero, id est liberum nunquam homini auferitur, quantumvis oporparet, et aeterna lex est, ut unusquisque in libero sit quoad interiora, hoc est, quoad affectiones et cogitationes, ut in illo insinuetur affectio boni et veri.

1877. Quoties affectio veri et affectio boni insinuat a Domino, quod fit cum homo proprius reficit, tunc in libero quia ex affectione, verum imbuat et bonum agit; quicquid enim ex affectione, hoc, ut dictum, est liberum, et tunc se coniungit verum quod est fidei cum bono quod est charitatis. Nisi liberum foret homini in omni quod cogitat et quod vult, liberum cogitandi verum et volendi bonum alicui a Domino insinuari posset; nam homo, ut reformetur, debet verum cogitare sicut a se, et bonum agere sicut a se, et quod sicut a se est in libero, nisi ita nunquam aliqua reformationis nec regeneratio.

1878. Innumerabiles causae sunt, ex quibus et propter quas homo amat dicere verum et velle bonum, sunt causae e mundo quamplurimae, sunt quoque e corpore quamplurimae, et quandoque tunc non proprie celum, minus propter Dominum; introducit homo a Domino in verum et bonum ita per affectiones, et unus homo proprius aliter et alter, quique secundum suam indolem, conatam et acquiritam; et quia introducit in verum et bonum continue per affectiones, ita continue per Libero; et tandem in affectiones veri spiritualis et boni spiritualis. tempora illa et statum illos solum Dominus novit, et solum applicat ad cuiusque genium et vitam disponit et regit; inde patet, cui homini liberum.

1879. Dominus per intimum hominis influat cum bono, et ibi coniungit verum, in intimo oritur ratio eorum; nisi homo sit in Libero inherens quoad omnes affectiones et quoad omnes cogitationes, nunquam disponi potest, ut bonum et verum aliquam radicem agat quod.

1880. Nihil aliud apparet homini ut suum, seu, quod idem, ut est proprium, ex Libero; causa est, quia omnis affectio, quod est amor, est ipsissima vita, et ex affectione agitur ex vita, hoc est, ex semet, ita a suo, seu, quod idem, ex proprio. In Libero, apparet sicut dictum, quale proprium est Angelis in celo, tenetur homo in Libero, et per se ipsum sicut a se, seu ex proprio; ad colere ex coacto, quod fit non a se, sed extrinsecus ad id faciendum adigente; ita quod cultus ex Libero sit ipse cultus, et quod cultus ex coacto sit nullus cultus.

1881. Si reformari potuisset homo ex coacto, non foret ullus homo in universo, qui non saluaretur, nihil enim facilius foret Domino quam cogere hominem ad tremendum ipsum, ad colendum ipsum, imo ad quod amandum ipsum, media sunt innumerabilia, sed quia id quod fit in coacto, non coniungitur.

CHARTER PURPOSES OF THE SWEDENBORG FOUNDATION

The purposes and powers of the Foundation are to print, publish, circulate and distribute the theological, scientific and other works and writings of EMANUEL SWEDENBORG, for benevolent, charitable, scientific, missionary and philanthropic purposes, as well as annotations, commentaries thereon and extracts therefrom, and to purchase, sell, translate into any language, edit and advertise such works and writings; to print, publish, circulate, purchase, or sell literature in agreement therewith or collateral thereto; to acquire, prepare, publish and distribute biographies of EMANUEL SWEDENBORG; to hold meetings, lectures, debates and conferences as a means of promoting interest in his writings and teachings; to maintain reading-rooms, libraries, branches and stations for reference and study of such writings and teachings in any part of the world; and to do such other lawful things as may be incidental to the carrying into effect of the foregoing purposes and powers, which purposes and powers shall be exercised without any pecuniary profit to any officer, member or employee of the corporation except reasonable compensation for services in effecting one or more of such purposes or powers.

A review of our distribution during the fiscal year ending March 31, 1971 reveals a slight modification of our policy on donations and sales in the direction of aggressive sales promotion in new areas, and a somewhat more conservative criterion regarding donations; with particular reference to West African requests. Sales accounted for 42% and donations 58% of the total of 35,335 volumes distributed, against 40% and 60% respectively of the 1969-1970 total of 35,700 volumes.

A breakdown of these figures reveals some interesting shifts in readership with a noteworthy increase in orders from academic communities and from areas hitherto rarely heard from.

We consider that the increase of $3,500 in the dollar volume of sales is encouraging in the light of a rather difficult economic year nationally.

Our persistent promotions in this respect have involved an increase in our NEWSLETTER mailing list from 8,800 names last Spring to 11,000 in the Fall; a broadening of our listings in professional association catalogs and publisher's indexes; the addition of new titles to our inventory; new radio promotions; a broadening of our distribution through PRECIS product promotion columns; and the enhanced attractiveness of our display window exhibits.

TRANSLATIONS

Economic and political conditions in Latin America have impeded our Spanish language distribution efforts in this area. We are, however, hopeful that the Introduction which the distinguished Argentine scholar, Dr. Jorge Luis Borges, is preparing for Dr. Kann's Spanish translation of Trobridge's Swedenborg, Life and Teaching will prove a catalyst for increased interest, both South and North of the border. We have in MS several other Spanish translations for future attention.

We continue to be active in seeking out scholarship equal to the task of fresh English translations of Swedenborg's Latin texts in the modern idiom, but with discouraging results so far.

Preparation for the press of Mr. Spiers' English translation of the German edition of de Geymuller's and Driesch's work on Twentieth Century scientific parapsychology and the spiritual world of Swedenborg has progressed slowly and is currently being prepared for the press with the assistance of Dr. William R. Woofenden.

Dr. Ames Johnston has completed his English translation of Vol. I of Benz's Swedenborg, Natural Scientist and Seer.

The Japanese translation of AC I, by the Rev. Yoshi Yanase, came off the press, and Vol. II is expected to be off the press shortly. A revised translation of TCR by the Rev. Shiro Torita is being prepared for printing.

Sales to some 90 college bookstores and libraries, and two youth groups, account for approximately 633 copies of Swedenborgiana, including True Christian Religion, Heaven and Hell, My Religion, Essential Swedenborg, Swedenborg, Life and Teaching, The Presence of Spirits in Madness and Dreams, Hallucinations, Visions. We were particularly interested to note that several of the orders received bore the inscription "for curriculum requirements."

Dr. Van Dusen will be pleased to learn that sales of his monograph to colleges and youth groups have reached a total of 560 copies and figured in 53 over-the-counter sales.

OUTREACH

Currently accredited distributors now number 62, and the increase of nearly 27% in their distribution testifies to the efficiency of Mr. Lister's supervision.

Life Members listening to reports at 1971 Annual Meeting.

WORK FOR THE BLIND

Our new Chairman of this committee, Mr. Adolph T. Liebert, has spent considerable time and effort investigating and analyzing a program for the blind. He and his committee have established standards, procedures, and techniques for Talking Book recordings on both "reel to reel" master tapes and cassette recordings. An introductory guide for volunteer readers interested in "reading" for Talking Books was also developed. During the year one man purchased sets of all our Talking Books.

The Committee is currently developing a program to supply needed material on Talking Book Recordings. According to library sources, there is a demand for tapes of short duration such as sermons and general interest subjects, followed by longer articles and lastly complete books. Also under consideration is the necessity to create a demand for the Swedenborg Foundation publications by advertising, specifically aimed at the blind—in their schools, in the braille Readers Digest and in other forms.

PRIZE ESSAY CONTEST

Our essay contest is being held this year at Yale Divinity School. The topic is "Languages and Symbols — Swedenborg and Current Criticism." Fourteen contestants have registered.

BUILDING AND MAINTENANCE

The Foundation building required several improvements. A new sidewalk was put in replacing an uneven cracked surface which had caused several accidents. The new sidewalk is in a designed pattern and of a warm golden-rod color which distinguishes the building and causes many to stop and take notice. The interior main floor and hallways were thoroughly cleaned and re-painted. A drain was installed in the basement to alleviate flooding which, in the past, had damaged a number of our books in storage.

Our new tenants, Path-Tek Laboratories on the third floor, and Olsten Transcribing Service on the second, are in their new quarters and have re-modeled the space to suit their needs. Both companies are subsidiaries of the Olsten Corp.

ADVERTISING, PROMOTION, AND PUBLIC RELATIONS

Mr. Harold Larsen, Chairman of the Advertising Committee reports that the campaign on Long John Nebel's radio program on WNBC advertising My Religion, Heaven and Hell, Divine Love and Wisdom, and Life and Teaching produced 1,519 orders, thus introducing Swedenborg to a new reading public to which we ordinarily would not have had access.

We have continued the feature articles distributed through the Precis Syndicate to the news media. The last article "Internal Security — How's Yours?" has produced 503 requests from editors. A new promotion with the Precis organization is the series of articles called "Keeping the Faith." These are articles of interest ending with a write-in order for the book mentioned in the text. They have been supplied to 3,400 suburban newspapers and orders for My Religion, Divine Love & Wisdom, Heaven and Hell, and Life and Teaching are coming in daily. Again these articles are reaching a public that other forms of advertising fail to touch.

We sponsored an exhibit at the Hotel New Yorker for the combined Annual Meetings of the American Academy of Religion; the Society for the Scientific Study of Religion; and the Society of Biblical Literature. From this convention we distributed 212 books to 116 people, mainly college faculty.

Harvest Festival

Gold and Silver Christmas

In response to a request from the Human Resources Administration of New York City, we donated 26 copies each of My Religion (both English and Spanish editions), Introduction to Swedenborg's Religious Thought (English & Spanish) and Golden Thoughts to be placed in libraries of community centers in poverty stricken areas of New York City.

We printed 12,000 copies of the Spring NEWSLETTER and a new catalogue of our publications is in progress.

ADMINISTRATION

Your Board has held nine meetings during the year, as a rule on the second Monday of each month, except during the summer months. These meetings always include separate sittings of the Executive, and Editorial & Publication Committees, who have borne the brunt of detailed research, decision-making and administrative matters. Their agendas have invariably been heavy, and their dedication to the uses of the Foundation are greatly appreciated. Among the more important publication projects engaging our attention are Dr. Block's Pictorial Biography of Swedenborg and Mrs. Sechrist's completion of a new lexicon of Bible symbolism (title still to be selected).

We are pleased to welcome at this time a new board member, Mr. Gus Bischof, elected to fill the vacancy in the class of 1968-1972, created by the death of John F. Seekamp.

LIFE MEMBERSHIP

During the year we lost 6 members by death, and 6 new members were welcomed, making the present total 310.

GIFTS AND BEQUESTS

Gifts and bequests from benefactors totaling $33,752, include* two bequests which totaled $30,126.

INVESTMENTS AND BUDGET

Our Investment Committee has maintained close touch with our investment counsellors, Brown Brothers, Harriman & Co., and as of March 31st, our portfolio comprised the following:

INVESTMENTS

	Book Value	Market Value
U.S. Government Obligations	$ 54,955.	$ 49,905.
Corporate Bonds	449,493.	366,262.
Preferred Stock	121,980.	121,994.
Common Stock	426,764.	581,038.
Mar. 31, 1971	$1,053,192.	$1,119,199.
Mar. 31, 1970	$1,069,264.	$1,017,902.

On recommendation of the Board, approved at the Annual Meeting, we have adopted the budget I am submitting to you for the period 1971-1972, anticipating an income of $130,000, and an expenditure of $166,000. For the year ending March 31, 1971, we had estimated income of $122,000 and budgeted expenses of $144,000, which was underspent by $15,500. Unanticipated receipts brought our actual income to $132,000., leaving us with a surplus of $3,500 in the year just past.

WINDOW DISPLAY

Our unusually attractive window displays reflecting the seasons as well as interim arrangements have attracted many passers-by who have taken advantage of our special offers and thus increased over-the-counter sales.

The themes this year included a dramatic black and orange design featuring blow-ups of cartoons from Big Question Off Campus; Harvest Festival; a Gold and Silver Christmas; Swed-enborg's Birthday, featuring our foreign translations; and a floral Easter window.

All of these window displays were designed and mounted by our Manager, Mrs. Virginia Branstom, who deserves our highest praise for her imaginative good taste and artistic skill.

PERSONNEL

Our staff has once again risen to meet an ever increasing volume of work. Due to the increase in our NEWSLETTER mailing, radio and news media advertising, and additions to our mailing lists, the subsequent paper work has increased proportionally.

Unfortunately we have had difficulty in maintaining adequate help in the stock and shipping department. The turn over in part-time helpers in that area necessitated spending a great deal of time training new workers. Even with this problem the staff managed to ship some 9,000 packages averaging 40 packages per day.

An extra part-time employee was hired to type manuscripts, which brings our staff to seven: Executive Secretary, Manager, Bookkeeper, and four part-time employees. To them we again record our deep gratitude for their devoted service.

COMMENTS FROM OUR FRIENDS IN AFRICA

"I was recently introduced to My Religion by Madam Keller, of whom I had heard so much in school. Here was the opportunity at last to meet Madam Keller on paper! What an opportunity to study God's wonders first hand from the subject herself . . . Miss Keller literally jerked my mind then set me forth rolling smoothly upon the beautiful, inspiring nature and work of Swedenborg . . . Please, I want to learn more about Swedenborg; I am famishing for what he offers . . ."

Loveman Hardey

"The books are not only interesting, but also useful to any lover of the truth. Anyone who loves the word of God will derive immeasurable spiritual growth from the study of Swedenborg's books."

J. H. Amoah

SWENDBORG FOUNDATION, INCORPORATED

TOUCHE ROSS & CO.

350 Fifth Avenue
New York 10001

May 4, 1971.

Board of Directors
Swedenborg Foundation, Incorporated
New York, New York.

We have examined the accompanying statement of net assets of Swedenborg Foundation, Incorporated (a New York membership corporation) as of March 31, 1971, and the related statements of revenues, costs and expenses — General Fund, and changes in net assets for the year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances. Marketable securities held by the Foundation's investment custodian were confirmed to us by the custodian. As to income from grants, bequests and gifts it was not practicable to extend our examination beyond accounting for receipts as recorded.

In our opinion, which with respect to grants, bequests and gifts is limited to those recorded on the books, the financial statements referred to above present fairly the net assets of Swedenborg Foundation, Incorporated at March 31, 1971, and the results of its operations and changes in net assets for the year then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

Certified Public Accountants.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS YEAR ENDED MARCH 31, 1971

NOTE 1 — INVESTMENTS IN MARKETABLE SECURITIES:

Stocks are carried at cost and bonds at amortized cost. Premiums on bonds are being amortized from dates of purchase to the respective maturity dates.

The details of the marketable securities are as follows —

	Approximate market	Amortized cost
Preferred and common stocks	$ 703,000	$ 548,745
Corporate bonds	346,300	425,774
U.S. Government obligations	69,900	78,674
	$1,119,200	$1,053,193

NOTE 2 — BOOKS AND PRINTED SHEETS:

The books and printed sheets are valued at cost, but are to be donated or sold at less than carrying value.

NOTE 3 — PENSION PLAN:

The Foundation has a nonvested, noncontributory pension plan for regular employees. The charge to expense for the year ended March 31, 1971 was $5,000. The funds accumulated to March 31, 1971 for this purpose of $17,865 (including interest of $865) are on deposit in a savings account. A liability for the $17,865 is included in accounts payable.

NOTE 4 — LAND AND BUILDING:

Land and building, at cost, are summarized as follows:

Land		$ 92,000
Building and improvements	$171,476
Less accumulated depreciation	16,949	154,527
		$246,527

Depreciation of building and improvements is provided by the straight-line method over the estimated useful life of forty (40) years.

NOTE 5 — REMAINDER INTERESTS IN ASSETS:

(a) The Foundation has a one-half interest in the residuary estate of John Hudson Chambers represented by assets held in Canada. The assets are being carried at quoted prices at December 31, 1926 (approximate market at March 31, 1971, $126,800). The assets are distributable under the terms of the Will after the death of certain life tenants. Fixed annuities are payable, if earned, to various beneficiaries during their lifetime from the income of the major portion of these assets, any excess of income being paid to the residuary legatees. The income from the remainder of the assets is shared by other life tenants (or their surviving widows). The residuary legatees share in the income to the same extent as enjoyed by the deceased life tenants during their lifetime.

(b) The Foundation is beneficiary of a $3,000 life insurance policy on the life of Emil Theilmann, deceased, payment of which is deferred until the death of the income beneficiary.

(c) The Foundation has a one-half interest in the residuary estate of John O. West. This estate is estimated to be valued at approximately $120,000. Under the terms of the Will, final distribution is to be made twenty years from the date of death (1975). At the present time, the Will is being contested by other beneficiaries and a former wife of the decedent. The amount of the eventual distribution to the Foundation by the estate is not determinable at this date.

(d) The Foundation has a remainder interest in the estate of John C. Byrne. Under the terms of the Will, the Foundation is to receive the balance of the estate remaining after payment of all other bequests. The amount that the Foundation will receive eventually is not presently determinable.

NOTE 6 — FUNDS RESTRICTED FOR SPECIFIC PURPOSES:

The fund for specific purposes consists of the following:

Gift of John Ellis — to distribute "Arcana Coelestia"
Vol. 1, to all clergymen and theological students	$10,000
A perpetual Helen Keller Memorial Fund for work for the blind	512
	$10,512

In prior years, the Foundation received certain gifts and bequests (in addition to a $40,000 general bequest) from John Ellis as follows:

(a) Bequest to supplement the $10,000 above, if additional amount is required, otherwise for general purposes	$20,000
(b) Bequest with prayer to use for specific purpose	$10,000

The Board of Directors of the Foundation believe that no part of the $20,000 bequest (Item (a) above) will be required for the purpose specified in the gift and has classified this amount as general funds. Although it is the intention of the Foundation to carry out the purpose set forth in the prayer with respect to the $10,000 bequest (Item (b) above), the Board of Directors voted to treat this item as an unrestricted bequest.
